New Homes at Daybreak

We have some really fantastic builders currently constructing homes in Daybreak. Home styles vary and prices range from the $100s to more than $1 million. These brand new homes are located in four of Daybreak's Villages.

Creekside Village

With all the Daybreak goodness you can squeeze between two creeks (one historic and one man-made), Creekside Village continues the rich traditions of inspired design that has made Daybreak Utah's favorite new home community. Homes are available in a variety of styles based on some of Salt Lake City's most beloved historic neighborhoods (with today's livability and energy efficiency). But what really sets it apart is what happens once you step out your front door. A 15-acre park, excellent schools, walking trails and community gatherings all add up to a different kind of life --one that feels more like living.

OUTDOOR LIVING

Building a relationship between indoor and outdoor spaces is a key focus for the new home designs.

BINGHAM CREEK PRESERVE

Do you remember that wide open space where you and your neighborhood friends would go for endless adventures on long summer afternoons? Well, Bingham Creek Preserve is that place. This dry creek bed also includes a primitive trail for mountain biking, creating a place somewhat removed from civilization for those grown-up adventures as well.

Lake Village

As one of the few freshwater lakes in the Salt Lake Valley, Oquirrh Lake is Daybreak’s most distinguishing feature and a magnet for joggers, bikers, strollers, picnickers, paddle-boarders, sunset-watchers, sandcastle-builders and anglers big and small. It’s the centerpiece of the whole community. And yet, we haven’t built any of our villages along its shores. Until now.

Give the lake to everybody. Pull the outdoors inside. Create yards that give you room to breathe and homes that take your breath away. These are a few of the design challenges that we gave our team of architects. And they came back to us with some beautiful ideas.

With our Lake Village, we’re creating something truly special. Not just a group of homes next to a lake, but a whole neighborhood that celebrates the lakeside lifestyle. Meticulously designed by some of the country’s best architects and brought to life by Daybreak’s acclaimed homebuilders.

LAKE VIEWS FOR MORE HOMES

We can’t place every home next to the lake. But in Lake Village, shorter blocks allow for more streets and this creates shorter routes to the lake. Or pick up a neighborhood trail and let it take you not only to the lake, but all the way around it.

Conventional community planning gives all the views to the homes right next to the lake. But by carefully staggering the placement of some homes and by siting other homes around shared green spaces, the Lake Village will share the wealth.

THE HOMES

Our team of architects and homebuilders has created all-new home designs that take full advantage of two unique locations within the Lake Village: on a hillside overlooking the lake and on a peninsula surrounded by the lake. The homes are all about views, sunlight, cross breezes and seamless indoor-outdoor living.

SoDa Row Village

Find the best of both worlds: a walkable, energetic lifestyle without the stress of city living. SoDa Row Village is a fresh take on community with modern homes and local businesses in a colorful, outdoorsy setting. Oh, and all the trail, park and lake access your inner triathlete could ask for. So you can have your lemonade and drink it too.

Do a little window shopping. Stop by the bank. Get a trim. And what the heck, pick up some cupcakes for later. Grab a kayak for a spin around Oquirrh Lake, and run home to get cleaned up before taking the light rail downtown for a dinner date. It's just another Saturday in SoDa Row Village.

And of course, if you or someone you know is ready to buy or sell a home, please stop by our office at 11248 Kestrel Rise Rd., Suite 102.
